GOT OFF WITH A FINE OF $10.
Drunken Coachman Carr Smashed Two Big Plate-Glass Windows. Then He Assaulted a Policeman and a Fellow Prisoner.

Oscar Carr, a drunken coachman, twenty-eight years old, of 113 East Thirty-second street, escaped with a fine of $10 in Yorkville Court to-day, after he kicked in the plate-glass fronts of two larger beer saloons, assaulted Policeman Kelly, of the Grand Central Station, and when placed in the prisoners' box in court turned on a fellow-prisoner named Thomas Murphy, charged with burglary, and punched him in the face.

But for the timely intervention of Court Officers Barnes and Murphy Carr would have probably cleaned out the prisoners' box. The officers caught Carr by the throat and locked him in the pen to await the arrival of Justice Voorhis. Carr is a brawny, heavily built fellow. At 6 o'clock this morning he got into a fight in P. J. Flannery's saloon, at 14 East Forty-first street, and going out on the sidewalk, kicked in the plate-glass front of the saloon. He then ran to the front of Neugbauer's saloon, at No. 110, and deliberately kicked in that window also. The crashing of the windows brought Policeman Kelly to the scene. He had no sooner placed Carr under arrest than he turned and assaulted him. Roundman Sullivan came to Kelly's assistance, and they then subdued Carr with a powerful blow in the face. Murphy, who was taken entirely by surprise, did not realize for a moment what had struck him. He took him but a second to come to his senses, and then he challenged Carr to fight there and then.

The challenge was immediately accepted, but before they had time to exchange a single blow Court officers Barnes and Sullivan stepped in, and ran him into the pen, strengthening the entire way. He was kept confined until the magistrate arrived and was then led to the bar.

Carr was quite meek when arraigned, and when the Justice heard the story he imposed a fine of $10, and told the saloon-keepers to bring a civil action against the prisoner for the breaking of the two show windows.

HELD UP A BUFFALO JEHU.
Two Thieves Rob the Driver of a Richmond Avenue Bus.

(By Associated Press.)
BUFFALO, March 6.—Two shabby dressed men mounted the seat by the driver on a Richmond Avenue bus last night, and when between Bryant and Ulster streets, covered him with their revolvers and forced him to give up what money he had. The driver, whose name is Van Dusen, did not carry his tickets and change in a box, but in his pockets. As one of the robbers assisted him in turning his pockets inside out, the search realized about $4 and a silver watch. None of the passengers was molested. The driver was taken to Police Court to-day, Justice Hogan held Goldberger on trial at Police Court.

Ziplin Seized the Intruder.
Miss W. Ziplin, of 41 Fourth street, caught Meyer Goldberger, eighteen years old, of 135 Bowery, leaving his apartments with a bundle of clothing under his arm. When he asked Goldberger what he was doing, he told her that he was leaving her apartment, and when she saw that he was carrying a bundle of clothing, she seized him. Goldberger was taken to Police Court to-day, Justice Hogan held Goldberger on trial at Police Court.

DRUGGED AND ROBBED.

Hart's New Acquaintance Got $1.50 in Jewelry and Money.

Seth T. Hart, a travelling salesman for Ed. Louchheim & Haas, wholesale clothing dealers, was the victim of a bunco men a few days ago, although the story was made public only to-day. Mr. Hart told the story himself.

He said he was in the Broadway Central Hotel Saturday night when he was approached by two men, who called him by name and appeared to know him very well.

The trio adjourned to the bar, where they had several drinks. Mr. Hart remembers nothing more until he found himself in his room in the Columbus Hotel. He had been given a key to the room.

His watch, diamond ring and scarf-pin, valued at all $250, were missing, as was a roll of money. He reported the matter to the police yesterday, and gave an accurate description of the thieves.

SAID THEY STOLE A CLOCK.
But Three Men, Accused by Mrs. Burman, Are Discharged.

At the Yorkville Police Court to-day Justice Voorhis discharged Thomas Murphy, twenty-seven years old, of 47 West Thirty-second street, Charles Horn, aged twenty-two, of 43 West Forty-seventh street, and Frank Joseph, twenty-four years, of 45 West Forty-third street, who were arraigned on the charge of burglary. Mrs. Jane Burman, of 41 West Thirty-second street, accused them of the theft of a clock, valued at $125, during her absence from home yesterday.

She said she had left them in her room, playing dominoes, and found them and the clock gone on her return. They denied the theft.

To Stop the Sale of Narcotics.
(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, March 6.—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of this city yesterday began a crusade against druggists who indulge in the illegal sale of narcotics and stimulants of all descriptions. Visits are to be made to drug stores, and if possible a purchase of morphine, laudanum, chloroform, cocaine, and other drugs will be made without a physician's prescription. Whenever a druggist is found who is willing to sell under such circumstances, his arrest and prosecution will follow.
